1. CMO REGISTRATION CLASS

Your AOM membership category is based on your CMO CLASS OF REGISTRATION. In order to change your AOM membership category to Inactive, you must first change your CMO registration class to Inactive. If you choose instead to resign from the CMO, the AOM will be required to revoke your voting membership. If you are accessing AOM Benefits and/or wish to keep your AOM voting member privileges, you will need to maintain an Inactive class of registration with the CMO.

- I have submitted a CHANGE OF REGISTRATION class form to the CMO.

Effective Date: (YYYY/MM/DD): _____

2. AOM MEMBERSHIP STATUS

- I will be maintaining my AOM VOTING MEMBERSHIP while I am inactive with the CMO.
 I will be revoking my AOM VOTING MEMBERSHIP while I am inactive with the CMO, and understand that by doing so, I will not be eligible for benefits of membership from the AOM or the AOM Benefits Trust

Maintaining your AOM VOTING MEMBERSHIP is not mandatory when you have INACTIVE CMO REGISTRATION and are not accessing your benefits. However, by remaining an AOM member, you also have access to:

- resources and discounts on the members' only website
- AOM OnCall assistance service (formerly PLEASE Line)
- LifeWorks member support program
- professional development fund
- member rates for AOM events
