

Generations Midwifery Care

EMERGENCY LOCUMS NEEDED!

Generations Midwifery Care is looking for emergency locums for the next few months. Available weekends? A two week block? A few months? Please let us know.

We are a small practice in a small town with a small and friendly hospital team. We are hiring full time permanent positions as well so consider spending some time helping us out, checking us out and enjoying the lovely community.

Check out our permanent job post for additional details.
