K'Tigaaning Midwives seeking a General Registrant Locum Weekends Jan -Mar 2020

We are looking for a General Registrant to cover off-call weekends during our winter vacations. The weekends we are looking for include Jan 17th - 20th, Jan 31st - Feb 3rd, Feb 7th - 10th, and potential weekend dates in March.

K'Tigaaning Midwives (KTM) is a small Indigenous focused practice, on Nipissing First Nation, adjacent to North Bay, Ontario. We also have a satellite office in Powassan, a half hour south, which hosts many Amish families. We are 4, $\frac{3}{4}$ time midwives in a shared care model. We have approximately a 30-40% out of hospital birth rate with many of those occurring at our lovely clinic. We have privileges at the North Bay Regional Health Centre where epidurals and oxytocin are a transfer of care.

KTM is located 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ hours north of Toronto. It is situated in a region that is considered a paradise for any outdoor enthusiast as we are surrounded by lakes, trails, as well as downhill and cross country skiing facilities. You can still be on call and enjoy a variety of leisurely activities.

You would be required to help as the 2nd on-call midwife for the weekend including providing back-up support at births, help with postpartum visits, and be available for relief work. As we would not be requiring you to attend births as the primary midwife, you will not likely be up long nights.

The timeframe for being on-call for the weekend is from 12am Friday - 8am Monday unless negotiated otherwise prior to your weekend on-call.

If interested, please contact Audrey ten Westeneind or Rachel Dennis Couchie at the email or number above.
