Miigwetch for your interest.
Interviews will be held ongoing. Only those selected for an interview will be called.

What we are looking for:

- Indigenous identified midwives are especially invited to apply at ANY time
- Non-Indigenous identified midwives who are fun, hard working, savvy, have experience managing epidurals and oxytocin, and who have a realistic and positive perspective on post-colonial issues facing Indigenous families in Toronto
- You have experience working with Indigenous community and/or other marginalized groups
- You speak another language, Indigenous languages are a special asset

What we have to offer:

- 1 year mentoring year contract
- Privileges at a supportive tertiary level hospital with epidural and oxytocin
- A supportive on-call schedule, 1 week on call/1 week off call and 8 weeks holiday per year
- LOTS of other interesting projects and learning opportunities to get involved in (community work, research, inter professional work)

SGMT is committed to positive and supportive learning environments for students. Interviews will not be conducted until after the MEP clerkship placement has finished so that students may focus on their learning.
