

Diversity Midwives

10 Bimbok Road. Scarborough ON | info@diversitymidwives.com

General Registrant(s)

Who Are We?

Diversity Midwives is an urban, Scarborough midwifery practice, established in 2001. We are a growing practice and have worked in team based, shared-care models. We continue to explore our shared care model as to further create the best model that facilitates a healthy work-life balance with ample time off. We are also a busy teaching practice, with students from the Midwifery Education Program, University and College Nursing & Nurse Practitioner Programs and High-School Co-op Students.

Our Catchment Area is North to Davis Dr in Newmarket, South to the Scarborough boundary of Lake Ontario, East to Ajax/Pickering and West to 401 boundary.

Our Community is very culturally diverse; we pride ourselves on providing excellent, culturally sensitive care and have cultivated a supportive environment for our clients, midwives and administrative team.

Hospital Privileges are held at The Scarborough Health Network, primarily at the General campus where our scope includes epidurals and oxytocin augmentation. We also maintain privileges at the Centenary campus, have many out of hospital births and regularly take clients to the Toronto Birth Centre.
