Then the Senior Midwifery Consultant position in Yellowknife is the opportunity you've been waiting for! Apply today: <https://www.gov.nt.ca/careers/en/job/22335>

Why the Northwest Territories?

Located above the 60th parallel, the Northwest Territories awaits with seemingly endless lakes and unmatched vistas. The opportunities available in our communities are perfect for the outdoor enthusiast looking for adventure, a healthy work/life balance, and an escape from the hustle of the big city.

On the shores of Great Slave Lake lies the city of Yellowknife (population 19,600), located in Chief Drygeese traditional territory. The 'urban' centre of the territory, the Northwest Territories' capital city boasts many of the amenities of a big city, while maintaining its small town charm, with outdoor wilderness adventures just minutes away. Whether you want to catch the latest plays at the Northern Arts and Cultural Centre, take in one of our many music and cultural festivals, enjoy delicious dining opportunities ranging from Korean to Ethiopian food to our summer farmer's market, or explore the surrounding environment by snowmobile, skis, boat, or float-plane, Yellowknife has something for everyone.

About the Work

The Senior Midwifery Consultant is responsible to support the review, improvement, and expansion of midwifery practice and services in the Northwest Territories (NWT). The overarching function of this position is to promote the quality and consistency of culturally safe midwifery practice and programming that contributes to the achievement of optimal maternal/child health outcomes in the NWT.

A position is currently available in Yellowknife, Northwest Territories, with consideration available to live and work in another NWT community currently delivering midwifery services

Typically this position requires successful completion of a Baccalaureate degree in Midwifery (Health Sciences), or assessed through a Prior Learning and Experience Assessment (PLEA) program within a Canadian province, with a minimum of 3 years' experience in delivering midwifery care as a primary care provider.

Experience in a midwifery leadership role would be an asset

What are the Benefits?

In addition to highly competitive salaries, the Northwest Territories offers a Northern Living Allowance

($3,700 for Yellowknife), health and dental benefits, a generous pension plan, and outstanding leave benefits including deferred leave options. On top of that, we offer relocation assistance, along with professional development opportunities and education support.
