Sudbury Community Midwives – New Registrant Position- March 2026

Sudbury Community Midwives is seeking a New Registrant Midwife for a 12–18-month contract, with a flexible start date in late summer —ideally beginning call September 2026. There is potential for a longer-term position beyond the initial contract period.

Established in 1993, our practice of 12 midwives serves a diverse mix of urban and rural clients in and around the Greater Sudbury region in Northern Ontario. Our community includes Franco-Ontarians, Indigenous families, and newcomers to Canada. Approximately 40% of our births occur at home or in our clinic.

Midwives are credentialed at Health Sciences North, where we manage epidurals and oxytocin infusions.

As a committed teaching practice, we are affiliated with both the Ontario Midwifery Education Program and the Northern Ontario School of Medicine and the Advanced Care Paramedic program at Boreal.

About the Position

We are looking for a midwife who is a strong communicator, a collaborative team player, and comfortable using EMR systems. Our team is committed to providing compassionate, evidence-based care in a collaborative environment that values continuity, cultural safety, and strong relationships with clients and healthcare partners.

This is a full-time position within a shared-care model, working in a team of three. Time off is flexible and coordinated within teams.

We are a well-established practice with a team that brings a broad range of clinical experience. The New Registrant can expect on call support in a structured and mentorship-rich environment, with adequate orientation prior to being on call.
