About New Life Midwives

New Life Midwives is a vibrant mixed urban, semi-rural and rural practice of 13 midwives who work across the Durham Region and Northumberland County. We have “East” and “West” teams with a mix of privileges at Northumberland Hills Hospital and Markham-Stouffville Hospital’s Alongside Midwifery Unit. We practice full scope midwifery at both sites and have excellent interprofessional relationships. New Life Midwives also boasts a thriving home birth community. Our clinic runs on Accuro EMR and is supported by two exceptional administrators. We care for newcomers from around the world, uninsured clients, and many happy repeat clients. The area has experienced population growth in recent years, offering many convenient amenities, while incredible outdoor experiences remain abundant.
