What we are looking for:

- Indigenous identified midwives are invited to apply at ANY time
- Indigenous/Non-Indigenous identified midwives who are fun, hard working, savvy, have an intersectional analysis, experience managing epidurals and oxytocin, and who have a realistic perspective on colonial issues facing Indigenous families in Toronto
- Experience working with Indigenous community and/or other marginalized groups
- Additional languages (Indigenous languages are a special asset)

What we have to offer:

- A New Registrant contract
- Privileges at a supportive tertiary level hospital with epidural and oxytocin
- A supportive on-call schedule, 1 week on call/1 week off call and 9 weeks holiday per year
- LOTS of interesting projects and learning opportunities to get involved in (community work, research, inter professional work)
