

NEW REGISTRANT POSTING

Seventh Generation Midwives Toronto is now accepting applications for the New Registrant positions.

Please email your CV and letter of interest to officecoordinator@sgmt.ca

We are looking for:

- Midwives who are fun, hard working, savvy, and who have a realistic and positive perspective on post-colonial issues facing Indigenous families in Toronto.
- Indigenous and BIPOC Midwives are especially invited to apply.
- Experience working with Indigenous communities and/or other marginalized groups is an asset, however mentorship and educational resources are available for those with no/limited experience working with Indigenous communities.

What we have to offer:

- A supportive on-call schedule and 12 weeks of holiday per year!
- Assigned mentor to help support you during your NR year.
- Privileges at Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre, a vibrant level-3 hospital with spacious birthing suites featuring birthing tubs in most rooms.
- Excellent working relationships with our MFM and low-risk OB consultants, labour and delivery nurses, and NICU teams, along with the support of hospitalist Midwives working on-site most days.
- Full scope of practice managing epidurals, oxytocin, and misoprostol inductions.
- Privileges at the beautiful Toronto Birth Centre, where our clinic is also located.
- LOTS of other interesting projects and learning opportunities to get involved in (community work, research, interprofessional work etc).

Please let us know if you have any questions!
Miigwetch, Nia:wen, thank you for your interest!
